Happy Ground Hogs Day!! We are certainly hoping he will see his shadow. Everyone ready for warmer temps and less wind. Also big birthday wishes to my beloved father in law, the big "93". He still is a handsome man and such a southern gentleman.

Amy judged 4 shows this month. On the 4th Full Gallop ran their Wednesday Event series. Next she judged the 2 one day events at Paradise Farm on the 13th and 14th. The 25th was the next Full Gallop Wednesday series shows.

Happy Valentine's Day. Amy's wonderful husband took her to the famous Valentine dinner for two at Junipers. It is very romantic with lots of good food and wine.

What would a month be like if Fair Lane Farm didn't host a clinic? We had Hokan Thorn come on the 28th to help us to continue to advance our horses. We got lucky with some nice weather for the day.

Our group did compete at one show this month. On the 21st and 22nd we competed at the Low Country Dressage show in Charleston. The excitement of the show was Caroline's big score in the PSG and earning her final score for her USDF SILVER MEDAL. Congrats!!

Talking about Caroline her newly imported horses have arrived from Germany. Amy will be getting the ride on Diamont a FEI horse schooling all the Grand Prix. Caroline will be keeping the big LIVER CHESTNUT for her to ride. What a surprise! HA!

Freestyles are in the air and we are excited about putting together a FEI Intermediare ride for Holly and Festina. We hope to have ready to show this spring.
