Amy judged of course the dressage phase. From there she headed back in the car and headed further west to Hamilton, Georgia to judge the Poplar Place Event.

Amy continues to drive to Charleston to ride Diamond as she prepares for her last show where she hope to earn her final scores for her Gold medal and "S" application .

Happy Mother's Day to all our moms in our group. This year Amy's parents came to visit from Florida to spend the holiday weekend. Memorable family time!

Fair Lane Farm hosted a Gunnar Ostergaard clinic on the 15th and 16th. He was very pleased and impressed with everyone's progress Especially Holly and Festina's passage and piaffe work. He was also pleased to see Amy and King back to full work again.

The 23rd and 24th of the month the group headed to the Aiken Dressage show. What an incredible weekend for all. We had 17 rides scores in the 70's and so many blue ribbons. This show Amy met her goals with 2 more Grand Prix scores in the 60's which made gave her the last scores needed for her Gold Medal! And enough scores to mail in her "S" application before the June 1 deadline. So much excitement in the air!
