Amy and Holly returned from Dressage at Devon the first Sunday. Amy's S testing finally complete., Three hard days of testing by Jayne Ayers and Natalie Lamping done! A written closed book rule book test, written tests at Prix ST George and Grand Prix. Written exam started Thursday eve at 8:30 pm. Written judging started at 3:30 pm and ended about 10:00 pm. Holly was a great scribe and kept me in the zone. Saturday was oral judging , more Grand Prix and Intermediare 1. Very intimidataing. You were called one at a time to sit between both examiners and needed to orally judge the test in its entirety including collectives , further remarks, and guestimated %. Now a long wait to the January LOC meeting to see if I passed. Stay posted for a celebration if passed.
