

August News

In spite of the incredible heat of the summer the McElroy group has been in the saddle. Our group has been practicing for some upcoming shows. First we have several riders competing at the Full Gallop Event. Extra good luck wishes to Myron and Allannah as they compete as a team in their first event in SC. Also competing there , Kathy V. and Liz on their two handsome bay geldings.

The next show is Labors Reward dressage show held here in Aiken. We have several riders competing in all levels from Introductory through the Intermediare II levels. Our newest boarder and rider , Lyn and her Poppy will be competing at their first show in SC. Also competing there, Holly. Dru, Laurens, Ashley, Sue, Jenna, and Amy. The show is the weekend of August 22 and 23. Remember to check back for results. Of course it would be great to have everyone's support at the show. Come look for us. To close out the month we will be showing at the Good Horseman's Show in Conyers, Georgia. This will be good practice as this is where the 2015 USDF Regional Finals will be held. Amy can be seen in the judges booth at two shows this month. On the 15th she is one of the ground jury at the Full Gallop Event in Aiken. On the 29th she will be judging at Chatt Hills event in Fairburn, Ga.

Several of us helped Pam Fall celebrate the big "60" a birthday dinner planned by her wonderful mom Jane.

August News

Amy is preparing for an empty nest again as her eldest son Marshall heads back to college. He is a sophomore at Carolina still majoring in Chemical Engineering. Her youngest son Russell will be a senior in high school!!