

NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

November started with Amy judging Sunday the 6th at the Full Gallop event. Riders competed in levels even up to the Intermediate level. Nice to judge back at one of Aikens favorite eventing spots.

Only a few days later Amy headed to THE KENTUCKY HORSE PARK to coach and cheer at the Dressage Nationals. Representing the McElroy group were Sarah Sharpe and Luna. They were a wild card selection. A blue and a fourth in her warmup classes. They did a great effort in their championship but not into the ribbons. But we are very proud of both of them. Also competing Joan Garaboldi on Bravo at the fourth and PSG levels. So great to see Joan competing in her tailcoat! Also Becky Shealy on Dani in the PSG. Intermediare 1, and Intermediare freestyle. Very exciting for all! There were only 4 riders representing South Carolina at this big show.

On the 19th and 20th we were lucky enough to have Hoka Thorn come to Fair Lane Farm to give a clinic. We look forward to having back on a more regular basis. Riders include Amy, Kathy V, Dru, Lisi, Jocelyn. Lyn, Shelly, Nan ,and Susan. A great way to start a Thanksgiving holiday. Amy will be heading to Florida for a well deserved short break with her family.

A reminder to take a look at the latest Aiken Horse magazine which is available for reading and its free! Also Amy's Ask the Judge column can be found on this website. Coming soon the 2017 proposed show schedule for your viewing.

Happy Thanksgiving.
